

What's Happening with Miss Becky?

Summer is in full swing!! Fishing, yard work, enjoying God's scenery and creations and very late nights (doesn't get dark/dusk till uummmm wee hours of the morning)

God gave you a fingerprint that no one else has, so you can leave an imprint that no one else can.

What an amazing summer we have been having here in Alaska. Although we have been having REALLY warm weather for us, we still have had some bad forest fires. Alaskans are not used to this hot weather :)

Here at SOAR, I have been going through old pictures of mission trips, camps and projects. It has been great reminiscing about trips that I have been on. As I looked at each picture I was wondering - where are they now?, how are they doing?, did they remember the Bible stories that were told to them when we came to their place?. It was kind of bittersweet to go through the pictures.

We are approaching that time of the year when I prepare and promote SOAR's Stuff-a-Stocking project. If you or your church would like information on how you can be involved with this awesome project, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sasha's Story

I had the privilege of hearing a story of a young man in the transition home whose name is Sasha. Here is more of his story.....

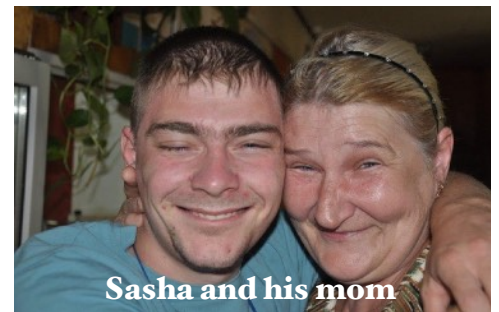

Recap of last month's letter: Sasha's dad died, parents often beat him, mom was nowhere to be found.

It was sad to see how Sasha received the news about his mom but the Lord helped him through this tough time. The Lord also gave him comfort and peace in his heart. He began to study the Bible - Sasha loves God's Word - he accepted Jesus into his heart, and the local church became like a mother for him. The Lord has given him a talent to memorize Bible verses. Recently he was baptized giving his promise to serve the Lord.

Pastor Anatoly received a call saying that Sasha's mother was sitting in the guardianship office and she was asking to find him. They wanted to know if Sasha wanted to meet with her. When Sasha knew that his mother was alive and wanted to meet with him, his joy was endless. She visited the Transition home where they had an awesome meeting. Sasha said "Mom, I was waiting for you very
