

Trip to Moldova in January

Hello Wendell,

This coming January, Heather and I have the opportunity to lead a team to Moldova to help distribute stockings to Ukrainian refugee children and at risk children in Moldova during the Orthodox Christmas which is January 7. SOAR has been asked to bring 850 stockings to Moldova by Voice of Truth Church and Bridge of Hope Ministries who will be leading the distribution of the stockings to the children.

The stockings that we will be bringing are currently being delivered in person and by mail to our SOAR office in Kenai, AK. These stockings have been prayed over and sewn with much love by many individuals in the US and Canada. The stockings will be stuffed with a Bible and other items purchased in Moldova and Ukraine. Our group will assist Voice of Truth and Bridge of Hope with the distribution of the stockings to the children. I will also have the opportunity to share the Gospel through a few Gospel magic tricks. We trust God will work in the hearts of these children and bring them to a saving knowledge of Christ.

Heather and I are praying for additional support to help cover our travel costs. Airfare, food, and lodging will be $3000.00 each. We will be leaving Anchorage on January 1 and arriving into Moldova on January 3rd where our group will be hosted by the Moldovan Bible School. We will spend two days helping Voice of Truth Church purchase items and stuff 700 stockings in preparation for four days of distributions. One of those days we are planning to travel to Ismail, Ukraine, just across the border from Moldova. We will then assist Bridge of Hope with purchasing and stuffing 100 stockings and traveling to Cernauti, Ukraine to distribute those. The distributions in Ukraine are dependent on the war of course, but regardless, Voice of Truth and Bridge of Hope will do their best to make sure the children in Ukraine receive the stockings. We will begin our flight home on January 12 and arrive back in Alaska on January 13.

Please keep Cy and Sadie in your prayers while we are away as the winter weather can prove to be challenging.
